

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

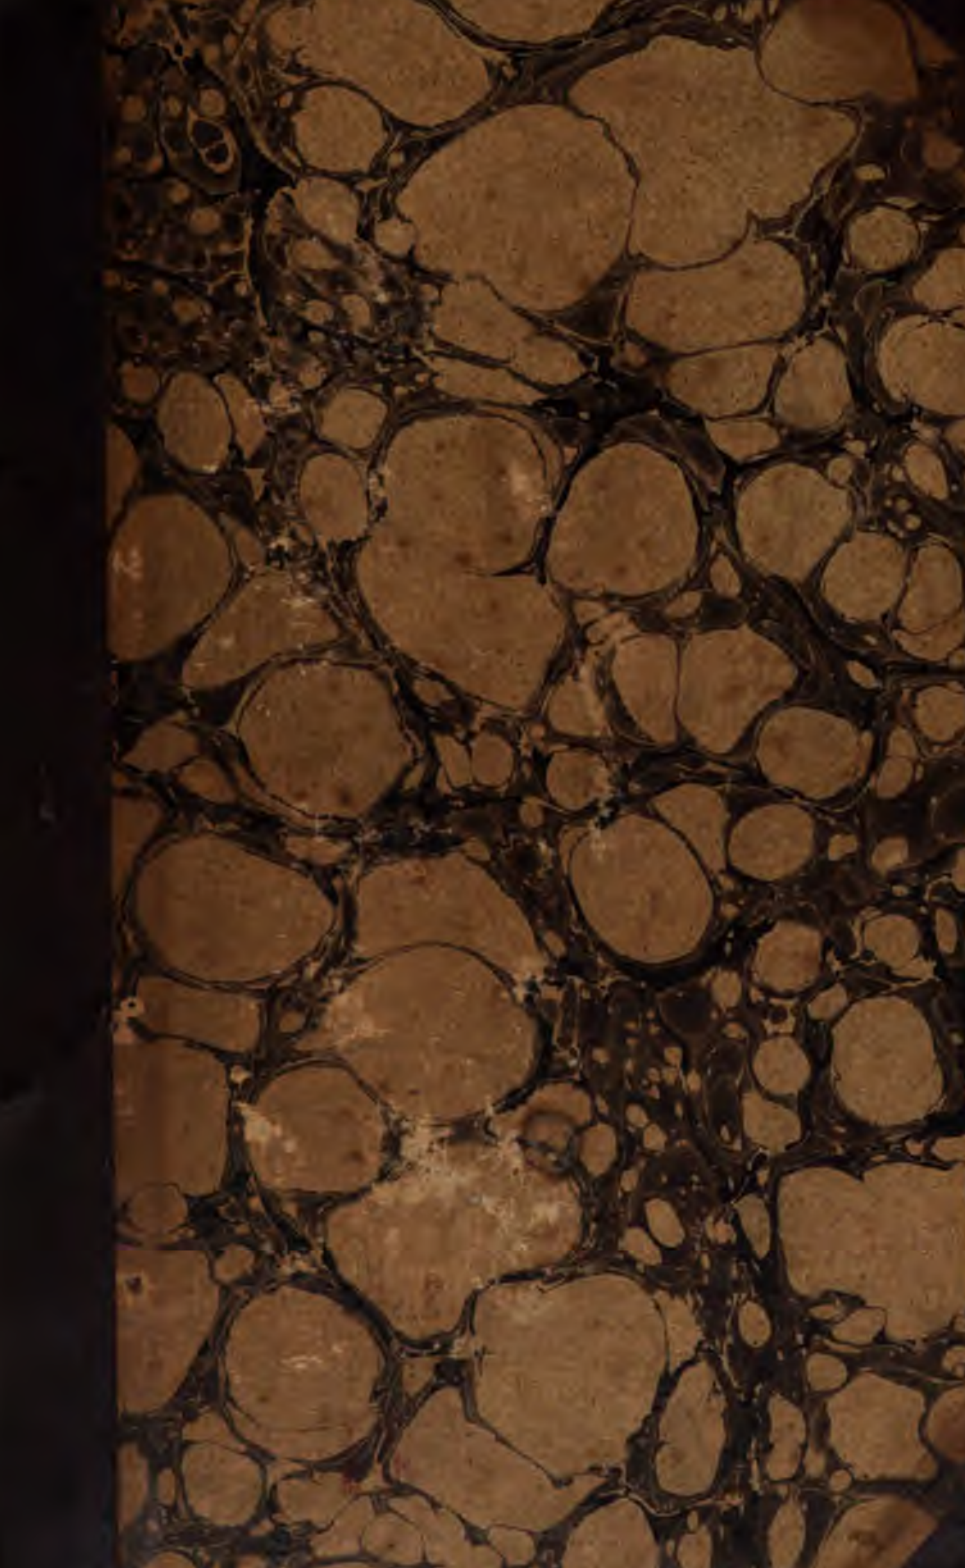

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

EAST NORFOLK ELECTION.

THE High Sheriff of Norfolk (WM. LYDE WIGGETT CHUTE, Esq. of South Pickenham), having received his Majesty's Writ for the Election of Two Knights to serve for the Eastern Division of this county, in the Parliament to assemble on the 29th of Jan. 1833, appointed Monday, the 17th day of December, 1832, for the said Election to take place at the Shire-house—on which day the several Candidates were put in nomination at a Special County Court, viz.:—Lord HENRY CHOLMONDELEY, by J. Petre, Esq. seconded by Sir Hanson Berney, Bart.—The Hon. Major GEORGE KEPPEL, by Edward Lombe, Esq. seconded by Joseph Muskett, Esq.—NATHANIEL WILLIAM PEACH, Esq. by Thomas Trench Berney, Esq. seconded by Thomas Thruston Mott, Esq.—WM. HOWE WINDHAM, Esq. by W. E. L. Bulwer, Esq. seconded by R. H. Gurney, Esq.

After the Candidates and their friends had addressed the Electors, the High Sheriff called for a shew of hands for each Candidate separately. Major Keppel and Mr. Windham had a decided majority held up in their favor, and the High Sheriff's declaration to that effect was received with shouts of applause.

Mr. Petre then demanded a Poll on behalf of Lord Henry Cholmondeley and Mr. Peach; but the polling did not commence until the following Thursday Morning at Nine o'clock.—The High Sheriff presided at Norwich, assisted by Adam Taylor, Esq.—Wm. Yarrington, Esq. the Under Sheriff, attended as his Deputy at North Walsham; Mr. Adam Taylor, jun. at Reepham; J. Townley, Esq. (of Lynn) at Yarmouth; and Frederick Browne Bell, Esq. (of Downham) at Long Stratton. The polling commenced at the booths erected in the above-mentioned places, and continued till four o'clock—it was resumed on Friday morning at eight, and finally closed at four, as prescribed by the Reform Act.

About half-past eleven on Monday, Dec. 24, the High Sheriff came into Court and stated, that the numbers having been cast up, there appeared to be—for

Mr. Windham	-	-	-	3304
Major Keppel	-	-	-	3261
Mr. Peach	-	-	-	2960
Lord Henry Cholmondeley	-	-	-	2852

The High Sheriff then declared William Howe Windham, Esq. eldest son of Vice-Admiral William Windham, of Felbrigg, in this county, and the Hon. Major George Keppel, second son of William Charles, Earl of Albemarle, of Quiddendenham, to be duly elected to serve in Parliament as Knights of the Shire for the Eastern Division of the County of Norfolk.

Mr. Windham having addressed the Electors, the return was signed by many of the Freeholders present, and the Court was adjourned.

The Members were afterwards Chaired, and their return to Parliament was celebrated by a Dinner at the Assembly-rooms.

The names of those marked * appear only once in the Register, although there is a double voting recorded in the Sheriff's Poll Book.

Among the Yarmouth Voters is the name of William Stanford for C. & P. but we are assured that some one must have fictitiously personated him, as he was at Ostend at the time.

APPENDIX.

A LIST of the KNIGHTS of the SHIRE for the County of NORFOLK, from the Reformation in 1542, to the Restoration in 1660.

[We have no regular account before 1542; but we find that in 1540, Sir Nicholas Hare, Knight, Member for Norfolk, was Speaker of the House of Commons.—Blomefield, in his History, vol. 1, p. 757, states, that John Wodehouse represented this county in four different Parliaments, viz. 1409, 1413, 1414, and 1416.]

The First Parliament of Barons was in the reign of King John, whom in the year 1215 they compelled to sign Magna Charta, the great bulwark of British Liberty: by this charter the freeholders of each county were to elect 12 knights, who assembled in their own counties till 1258, when the shires first sent knights to Parliament. But the epoch of the English House of Commons was not till Jan. 20, 1265, 49th of Henry III. For about 150 years the Parliaments were annual, if the Kings wanted them, and were dissolved as soon as the business they were called upon was dispatched. The first time that Lords and Commons are expressly mentioned was in 1337, but no journals were begun till the reign of Edward VI. At the accession of Henry VIII. in 1510, one hundred and forty-seven counties, cities, and boroughs sent representatives to Parliament: 31 were added by that king; 21 by Edward VI.; 14 by Mary; 31 by Elizabeth; 14 by James I.; 8 by Charles I.; 4 by Charles II.; and 45 Scotch members by Anne, in the fifth year of whose reign the Union with Scotland took place, the treaty having been signed on the 22d of July, 1706. The British Parliament met the next year, and consisted of 74 English knights and 399 citizens and burgesses; 16 barons of the Cinque Ports; 12 knights and 12 burgesses for Wales; 30 knights and 15 royal burgesses for Scotland—in all 558 members.—By the Act of Union between Great Britain and Ireland, which was passed in 1800, 40th of Geo. III. terminating the 18th British Parliament, one hundred knights, citizens, and burgesses were added for Ireland. This act became an operative law on the 1st of Jan. 1801; on the 22d of Jan. the United Parliament, consisting of 658 members, assembled by proclamation, and on Monday, the 2d of Feb. following, the first Session was opened by his Majesty with a speech from the throne.—Under the Reform Act (passed June 7, 1832), the House of Commons is composed of the same number of members (658) as in the former Parliament—but now consists of 254 knights of shires; six members for universities; and 398 representatives for cities and boroughs.* The first Reformed Parliament assembled on the 29th of Jan. 1833, when the Commons elected the Right Hon. Charles Manners Sutton to be their Speaker; and on Tuesday, the 5th of Feb. the first Session was opened by his Majesty King William IV. (in person) with a speech from the throne, to both Houses.
