

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Analysis of r

THE ELECTION.

THE Death of King William the Fourth, took place at Windsor Castle, at 12 minutes past two o'clock, A. M. on Tuesday, the 20th June, 1837. On Monday, July 17th, Queen Victoria, (daughter of his late Royal Highness the Duke of Kent) in person, prorogued the sittings of the two Houses, and in the evening of the same day an Extraordinary Gazette was issued containing a Proclamation for dissolving the present and calling a new Parliament together. According to the Constitution of England, the accession of a new Sovereign to the Throne rendering an appeal to the country necessary within a limited period, preparations for this event had already been made amongst the different constituencies.

Mr. Bagge, who had single handed opposed Sir Wm. Folkes and Sir Jacob Astley in 1835, had for some months been openly associated with Mr. Chute as his colleague, and they had also pursued a canvass amongst the Electors of the Western Division in their joint names. In an address published in the county papers on the 24th of June, they declared their determination to redeem their pledge of contesting, in the Conservative interest, this division of the county. "It will be our endeavour in the meantime, (they said) personally to renew the applications for support which our recent canvass convinces us will ensure our return as your Representatives." On the following week Sir Wm. Folkes and Sir Jacob Astley announced their intention of again offering themselves as candidates, in the following address :—

To the Electors of the Western Division of the County of Norfolk.

The lamented Death of our late most Gracious Sovereign having rendered a Dissolution of Parliament unavoidable, we feel ourselves called upon to redeem the pledge which we have publicly given, of affording you an opportunity to record your votes in favour of those principles on which you have twice returned us your Representatives in Parliament.

As Members of a reformed House of Commons, we beg leave most respectfully to submit to your consideration, that we cannot more effectually evince the sincerity of our adherence to those principles than by proceeding at once to enforce them practically on this occasion, and declaring that we solicit your Votes on grounds in strict accordance with the enactments for regulating the expences of elections, and that we look for your support and co operation in this constitutional exercise of our mutual rights.

Her Majesty's gracious Declaration in Council conveys to us the most explicit assurance of her attachment to those just and liberal principles of Government, which will endear the memory of our late lamented Sovereign to every class of his subjects. She relies upon the affection and loyalty of her people, and the wisdom of Parliament, for support and advice under the awful task which has so early and unexpectedly devolved upon her. Let us cordially respond to this affecting appeal, and prove to her Majesty that neither her People nor their Representatives will deceive her expectations.

Animated by this hope, and unbiassed by any personal views, but wholly induced by our grateful sense of the confidence with which you have hitherto committed your interests to our care, we beg leave to offer you our continued services, on those terms on which alone we feel that we can tender them consistently with the duty we owe to the public and our own professions.

We are, with the greatest respect,
Your faithful and obliged humble Servants,
W. BROWNE FOLKES
JACOB ASTLEY.

London, June 24th, 1837.

We shall also subjoin the other addresses put forth, as a record to shew the grounds on which the opinions and the decision of the Electors were appealed to in this memorable contest.

To the Electors of West Norfolk.

GENTLEMEN—The lamented Death of his late Majesty having rendered a Dissolution of the present Parliament inevitable, allow us to renew the pledge we have given of contesting the Representation of your Division with the present Members.

Having already, at very numerous and influential meetings of your body, openly avowed the political sentiments on which we solicit your suffrages, we had intended merely to have announced to you our continued adherence to the Conservative Cause. The assumption, however, of the Ministerial Press adopted by our Opponents that the cause of her present Majesty is identified with the continuance in office of the present Administration, and the insinuation that her Majesty expects you to evince your loyalty to her by again returning them to Parliament, demands from us a more explicit avowal of our sentiments.

That avowal, we trust, will convince you how groundless are the insinuations of our opponents. Our political principles are those under which Great Britain has attained her present greatness—they are founded on an uncompromising attachment to the Prerogatives of the Crown—the Independence of the Peers, and the Rights of the People.—We are the professed advocates of liberty and order, and we look to the happy admixture of our political institutions as the most certain and effectual safeguards that human wisdom has yet contrived for the maintenance of those essential elements of social happiness.

In maintaining the Established Religion, we consider we promote religious liberty in its most extended application ; for the Church of England is the fortress of religious liberty at home and its guarantee throughout the world.

When then we read with thankfulness that her most gracious Majesty has declared in words consecrated by the gratitude of the nation “ that she has learned from her infancy to respect and love “ the institutions of her native country, and that it will be her “ unceasing study to maintain the Reformed Religion as by law “ established, securing to all the full enjoyment of religious liberty, and that she will steadily protect the rights and promote “ to the utmost of her power the happiness and welfare of all “ classes,” we are convinced in all loyal humility that the principles we profess will be far more acceptable to her Majesty than those of our opponents.

We arrive at this conviction from the fact that her Majesty has made these gracious declarations whilst yet fettered by an Administration whose confession it is that they have aimed heavy blows at Protestantism—an Administration forced upon her royal predecessor and supported and maintained in power solely by the avowed enemies of our National Establishment.

Of this Administration the Gentlemen who have hitherto represented your interests have been the steady and unflinching supporters, joining with them in all the measures of spoliation which have been suggested and brought forward during the last two years by the real head of the present Government, the POISH IRISH DEMAGOGUE.

It is for you, Gentlemen, as Electors, by your votes to determine between the respective claims of the Candidates.

In conclusion, we would only refer you to her most gracious Majesty's declaration in Council, you will then perceive with what honesty you have been addressed by the commentators upon that document.

It will be our endeavour personally to pay our respects to you, and in the meantime, in confident anticipation of a successful issue to the great struggle in which we are engaged,

We beg to subscribe ourselves, your obedient Servants,

WILLIAM BAGGE

WILLIAM LYDE WIGGETT CHUTE.

Committee Room Swaffham, July 4th, 1837.

To the Electors of the Western Division of the County of Norfolk.

GENTLEMEN—Since we last addressed you the Queen has dissolved the Parliament in which we had the honour of representing you, declaring her determination to secure to all the free exercise of the rights of conscience, to protect the liberties and promote the welfare of all classes of the community.

With a hearty desire to aid in carrying into effect the gracious determination of the Queen, we again solicit the honour of representing you, referring with confidence to our votes on the important measures brought forward, during the two last Sessions of Parliament, by those who now constitute her Majesty's Government, with a view to promote the best interests and general well-being of the kingdom at large.

We beg leave most earnestly to impress upon you the immense importance of the result of the present Elections, as involving the question whether the Queen shall be supported in her choice of a Liberal Administration, or be forced to take as her advisers, men opposed to those improvements in the Institutions of the country which the increased intelligence of the age requires.

We take this opportunity of assuring our supporters that the result of our canvass justifies us in stating our confident expectation of success.

We have the honour to be, Gentlemen,

Your faithful and obedient Servants,

WM. BROWNE FOLKES

JACOB ASTLEY.

Swaffham, July 20th, 1837.

The Writs were received at the Under-sheriff's Office, Norwich, on Tuesday, July 18th, and the Election was fixed to take place at Swaffham, at a quarter before eleven on Saturday, July, 29. On this, the nomination day, the respective candidates were escorted to the hustings by large bodies of their friends. The cavalcade in the Conservative Interest was more especially splendid, and it was calculated that there were not less than 3000 persons in the procession. The party colours were Pink and Purple (Conservative) and Blue and Green (Whig.)

The usual formal business having been gone through, the High Sheriff (J. PETRE, Esq.) requested a fair hearing for every gentleman who was desirous of addressing the meeting; Sir W. J. H. B. FOLKES, Bart. of Hillington Hall, was put in nomination by Anthony Hammond, Esq. and Mr. Lemon, of Whitwell; Brampton Gurdon, Esq. and Fred. Walpole Keppel, Esq. proposed Sir JACOB ASTLEY, Bart. of Melton Constable; Colonel Mason and C. B. Plestow, Esq. nominated WM. BAGGE, Esq. of Stradsett Hall; and Captain Charles Loftus & Sir Thos. Hare, Bart. proposed WM. LYDE WIGGETT CHUTE, Esq. of Pickenham Hall. The candidates, as their nominators had previously done, addressed the Electors assembled, after which a shew of hands was taken and displayed a preponderating majority in favour of Mr. Bagge and Mr. Chute. A poll was demanded by Sir Henry Bedingfeld, Bart. on behalf of Sir Wm. Folkes and Sir Jacob Astley.

On Tuesday, Aug. 1, the polling commenced at nine o'clock, at the six appointed districts, where the following gentlemen acted as the High Sheriff's Deputies. Swaffham, Mr. Fras. J. Blake; Lynn Regis, Mr. Adam Taylor; East Dereham, Mr. Geo. Elward Simpson; Fakenham, Mr. Brooke Taylor; Thetford, Mr. Adam Taylor, jun.

Four o'clock was the time at which the books were closed the first day, and when the different returns were received the State of the Poll, as given by the Conservatives was—

	B.	C.	F.	A.
Swaffham	249	244	165	167
Dereham	482	486	336	352
Lynn	367	739	532	435
Fakenham	441	418	692	731
Thetford	394	389	454	457
Downham	452	376	315	306
	2885	2652	2494	2448

The return of Mr. Bagge was now placed beyond a doubt, and Mr. Chute's success appeared also certain, but there still remained about 800 voters who could poll. Great efforts were made to secure Sir Wm. Folkes, but the Conservatives preserved their ascendancy, although their previous majority was reduced on the next day's poll, which stood as under :—

Bagge	308
Chute	240
Folkes	337
Astley	261

On Friday the official declaration of numbers was made by the High Sheriff as follows :

Bagge.....	3178
Chute.....	2877
Folkes	2838
Astley	2713

The newly elected Members were chaired at Swaffham, amidst great enthusiasm.

At the conclusion of the contest, the following Addresses were issued :—

To the Electors of West Norfolk.

GENTLEMEN—The great Constitutional Struggle in which we have been engaged has, by your exertions, terminated to the satisfaction of every well-wisher to our venerated Institutions ; and whilst we cordially return you thanks for the proud position in which you have placed us, we cannot forbear to congratulate you upon the Example which you have set to the Electors throughout the Kingdom.

Firmly attached to the existing Constitution of the Country, we go to Parliament with an anxious desire to support every measure brought under consideration for its improvement, and with a fixed determination to oppose all organic changes.

The Interests of the Agriculturist are our own ; and whilst we shall anxiously endeavour to perform our Parliamentary duties, the local interests of our Constituents shall have our particular attention.

We have the honour to be, Gentlemen,
Your obliged and obedient Servants,
WILLIAM BAGGE
W. L. WIGGETT CHUTE.

Committee Room, Swaffham, Aug. 3rd, 1837.

To the Electors of the Western Division of the County of Norfolk.

GENTLEMEN—Contrary to my most sanguine expectations, and totally at variance with the promises that had been made to me, I have been defeated by a small majority.

This result is to me personally a matter of small regret, but on public grounds, I deeply lament it.

Since the year 1830 I have devoted the greater part of my time to your service in endeavouring to carry out those principles on which I first consented to become a Candidate for your Representation.

As a Reformer I voted throughout for the Reform in Parliament Bill, and as a friend to Economy and Retrenchment I have given a general support to a Government which has annihilated some hundreds of useless offices, and reduced by some millions the public expenditure.

I was in favour of the Poor Law Amendment Bill, believing that it would produce a greater feeling of independence amongst the labouring classes, and would tend also greatly to the improvement of their moral character. As Chairman of this Union I have endeavoured to administer the law in common with my Brother Guardians with prudence and moderation.

The Tithe Commutation Bill received my support. The effect of this Act will I trust be to remove all causes for misunderstanding between the Tithe-owner or Tithe-payer, and place the property of the Church on a more solid foundation.

These are some of the most important public measures in which I have taken a part, and I can safely declare that during the whole of my parliamentary life, my sole object has been to support every practical improvement in our Institutions without destroying the Constitution ; and to all private Bills and other matters in which any of my Constituents have been interested, I have paid every attention without reference to their political opinions.

In taking my leave of you, I beg to offer my hearty thanks to the Electors generally for the confidence reposed in me at my three first Elections, and particularly to those Friends who have so nobly and disinterestedly exerted themselves in our common cause on the two last occasions.

I am, Gentlemen, your obedient Servant,

WILLIAM BROWNE FOLKES.

Hillington Hall, August 5th, 1837.

To the Electors of the Western Division of the County of Norfolk.

GENTLEMEN—Allow me to return my warmest Thanks to those Electors who have by their exertions supported me and the principles on which I ventured to solicit their suffrages.—After carefully canvassing my constituents, and inspecting the several returns, I considered my success to be certain; that the result has deceived my just expectations, I can only impute to a degree of intimidation, coercion, and bribery unexampled in a contested County Election. On this ground I most earnestly enjoin you never to lose sight of the good cause for which we have contended nor the duties it imposes, and you may rely on every effort on my part to restore the representation of your interests to those Friends of Reform, from whom alone we can expect a system of policy adapted to the wants and feelings of the present times, and to the preservation of our best institutions, and the integrity of the empire.

During the two Parliaments in which I have had the honour of representing you, it has been my constant endeavour to give effect to such measures as have appeared to me the most conducive to the public good, consistently with the deference due from me to the local interests and declared wishes of my constituents, and whatever opinion you may have formed of my judgment, I feel confident that you have never had reason to impeach my integrity.

I beg leave to add my assurance that in ceasing to be your Representative, I can never cease to regard with sentiments of the most sincere attachment every object connected with the interests and prosperity of our common country.

I am, Gentlemen, with great respect,
Your faithful and obedient humble Servant,

JACOB ASTLEY.

Melton Constable, Aug. 6th, 1837.

THE ELECTION.

THE Dissolution of Parliament, consequent on the demise of the Crown, took place on Tuesday, July 18th. Preparations for this event had been previously made throughout the country, and we shall briefly record the proceedings of parties in East Norfolk as regards the Election of 1837. Although it was generally rumoured that Lord Walpole would not offer himself for a seat in Parliament, the announcement was not publicly made until the last week in June, on the 29th of which month the following Address appeared in the Provincial Journals :—

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE EASTERN DIVISION OF THE COUNTY OF NORFOLK.

GENTLEMEN—His Majesty's death occasioning an early Dissolution of Parliament, it becomes necessary for me to explain myself as to the course it is my intention to adopt upon the occurrence of that event.

Unknown to you and in my absence, I was elected your Representative ; the Votes I have given in Parliament, will I trust have proved that your confidence was not misplaced.

Whatever regret it may occasion me, it is but right and decorous to those who have honoured me with their support, thus early to announce my Resignation.

The physical debility and ill health under which I am at present labouring, preclude me from exerting that energy and application, which I feel ought to be shewn by every Representative in the cause of his Constituents. It is but fair in them to require it, it is but a duty in him to perform it.

Allow me, therefore, Gentlemen, in a few words to take my leave of you, plainly, sincerely to thank you for your past kindness, to wish every happiness to my native County, every prosperity to the Cause of which though a weak, at least I was a sincere Supporter.

Believe me, your's gratefully,

London, June 22nd, 1837.

WALPOLE.

Coincident in point of time with this avowal of his Lordship's intentions, Mr. Edmond Wodehouse and Mr. Wm. Howe Windham severally addressed the electors.

TO THE FREEHOLDERS OF THE EASTERN DIVISION OF THE COUNTY OF NORFOLK.

GENTLEMEN—As an immediate Dissolution of Parliament is no longer doubtful, I beg leave most respectfully to solicit a Continuance of that Favour which I have now had the happiness to receive at your hands during a period of nearly 20 years. I do indeed feel that no man was ever honoured with a more generous confidence on the part of his Constituents than I have been; and I have always felt too that the only way by which I could show that I had appreciated your esteem rightly, was by a constant and earnest endeavour to discharge my duty faithfully.

At the last General Election I had the honour to be associated in the Representation of the County with Lord Walpole, who from his state of health has signified his intention of withdrawing from your service. If I venture to express my regret at his determination, it will not, I trust, be imputed an act of presumption on my part, but simply a tribute of justice towards a young Nobleman of very promising talents, and a mind strongly imbued with that which cannot otherwise be described than as Conservative principles, which, without the slightest disrespect to any one, we believe to be the surest safeguard for the maintenance of the rights & liberties of the Constitution.

We have entered on a new Reign, under circumstances that cannot fail to excite an intense degree of interest in the breasts of every one who reflects on the future destinies of this Country, either as regards our domestic institutions, or our relations with other States.

I can only pledge myself to give whatever may be hereafter submitted to Parliament the most dispassionate consideration, and have the Honor to subscribe myself,

Gentlemen, with unfeigned respect,

Your most obliged and faithful Servant,

EDMOND WODEHOUSE.

TO THE ELECTORS OF EAST NORFOLK.

GENTLEMEN—I again offer myself as a Candidate for the Representation of East Norfolk. My principles have undergone no change. I still believe they are those of a majority of the Electors, and if any circumstance can confirm that belief, it will be found in the Liberal expressions of a gracious Queen, educated to respect, while she concurs in the improvement of the Institutions of the Country she is born to govern. It will be found in the relief from the burdens of taxation which the Ministers she has re-appointed have given to the Empire, together with the great, safe, and comprehensive measures they have passed and proposed, to forward the self-government of the people, and to establish civil and religious freedom. To these Ministers, should I be returned, I beg to say I shall give my independent aid—independent, because while I make this general assurance, I will not pledge myself to a blind adherence to any set of men, to the exclusion of that judgement which it behoves every honest Representative to exert.

I have the honour to be,
Your most faithful and obedient Servant,

W. H. WINDHAM.

Hopes appeared to be entertained by the Whig party that no attempt would be made by the Conservatives to fill up the vacancy occasioned by Lord Walpole's retirement, although it would be difficult to comprehend upon what grounds such hopes or expectations could have been founded. The strength of the Conservatives in this Division of the County had been manifested by their having been able, in the absence of Lord Walpole, to return him as the colleague of Mr. Edmond Wodehouse in 1835; nor could the recollection of the tactics of the Liberal party towards that long tried and highly respected Representative be put out of mind. And independently of this, the talk of compromise in times like these would have been out of season. "Heavy blows and great discouragement to Protestant interests" in Ireland had been complacently acknowledged as not incompatible with the duty of the Protestant Prime Minister of the Crown; a system of policy revolting to English feelings had of late unfortunately characterised the Government; and the Conservatives would justly have been subjected to the reproach of flying from their posts, in the hour of danger, had they connived at any step which would have given a single support to the Ministerial ranks in the House of Commons. As soon, therefore, as it was known that Lord Walpole had withdrawn, immediate measures were taken to find a new colleague for Mr. Wodehouse, and the attention of the leading individuals in the Conservative interest was turned to Mr. Henry Negus Burroughes, of Burlingham. A meeting was held in Norwich on Saturday, the 29th, at which Sir Jacob Preston presided. Lord Walpole's letter announcing his intention not to offer himself again, having been read, a requisition was agreed to and signed addressed to Mr. Edmond Wodehouse and Mr. Burroughes, requesting them to offer themselves as Candidates for the Eastern Division, and a general meeting of the Conservatives was called for the following Saturday. Notwithstanding the announcement, from authority, that if this meeting took effect, Mr. Richard Hanbury Gurney would come heart and soul into the field of contest as the colleague of Mr. Windham, the Conservatives did assemble in large numbers. Sir Jacob Preston again took the chair, and on the motion of John Stracey, Esq. seconded by Thomas Farrer, Esq. it was resolved :

"That Edmond Wodehouse, Esq. by his constant attention to the Business of Parliament and his consistent support of Conservative Measures, has most justly acquired, and, therefore deserves the confidence of the Electors of the Eastern Division of Norfolk.

"That Henry Negus Burroughes, Esq. by his integrity, independence, and efficient discharge of the public duties hitherto undertaken by him, is a most desirable, fit, and proper Person to Represent the Eastern Division in Parliament.

"That the most active measures be immediately taken in all parts of the Division to secure the Return of Edmond Wodehouse, Esq.

and Henry Negus Burroughes, Esq. as Members of the ensuing Parliament, and that the Hon. Edward Wodehouse be requested to act as Chairman of the Central Committee of Electors."

Within a short space of time from the breaking up of this meeting, Mr. Gurney's address was in circulation, offering himself as a Candidate. Mr. Burroughes was in London at this time, but on the Tuesday, the following address appeared:

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE EASTERN DIVISION
OF THE COUNTY OF NORFOLK.

GENTLEMEN—I have received a Copy of the Resolutions passed at a Meeting of the Electors of East Norfolk, at the Rampant Horse, Norwich, on Saturday last. From the flattering terms of those Resolutions, added to the number and respectability of the signatures affixed to a Requisition which was adopted by the same Meeting, I can no longer hesitate to come forward in support of the Conservative Cause—upon the strength of that cause, in the ensuing Parliament, I conscientiously believe, depend the Preservation of Real Liberty in this Country, and the Maintenance of every thing that is valuable in the British Constitution.

I shall take the earliest opportunity of commencing a personal Canvass, in conjunction with Mr. Edmond Wodehouse, with whom I feel proud to be associated upon this occasion.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,
Your obedient humble Servant,

H. N. BURROUGHES.

Harley Street, London, July 3rd, 1837.

On Wednesday, Mr. Burroughes arrived in Norwich, and immediately commenced a personal canvass of the electors in company with Mr. Wodehouse, visiting as far as the time would allow, every part of the Division. Mr. Windham and Mr. Gurney were also on the alert, and the canvass was pursued on both sides with great vigour and perseverance. The reception of the Conservative candidates was stated to be highly gratifying, and to give the strongest and best-grounded assurances of success; whilst the Whigs maintained a confident expression that Mr. Burroughes would not be elected, and that

Mr. Wodehouse was far from being safe. Nay it was even said, that in power and popularity Mr. Windham and Mr. Gurney were almost universally believed to have it hollow. The several candidates had hitherto appealed to the electors separately, but the following joint addresses subsequently made their appearance:—

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE EASTERN DIVISION
OF THE COUNTY OF NORFOLK.

GENTLEMEN—From the moment that we had the honor to address you separately, we have been incessantly engaged in canvassing jointly for the promotion of our Common Cause.

We have found during our progress such unbated zeal, and such unhesitating assurances of support, that we should be wanting in our duty towards you if we did not assert in the strongest terms our increasing Confidence of Success.

As the Day of Election draws nigh, the present perhaps is the only opportunity that may be afforded us of setting before you a short explanation of the principles on which we ask your favour.

We entirely disclaim all idea of causing any unnecessary embarrassment to the Councils of her Majesty, and it is indeed incumbent on us to make this declaration, because, partaking as we do in common with every subject throughout the Empire, in the ardent hope that it may be her Majesty's happy lot to reign for years in peace, rejoicing in the affections of a loyal and thriving people, we cannot disguise our want of confidence in her Majesty's present Ministers, & for reasons which we are convinced will be intelligible.

We do not speak with the view to their immediate removal from office—but we are apprehensive that the unrestrained exercise of their policy must ultimately prove to be dangerous alike both to the Throne and the People, if not placed above the temptation of seeking aid from men who do not scruple to look to other means for carrying their ends into effect, than those which emanate from and rest upon the balanced powers of the Constitution. On the preservation of that balance we submit to you that the stability of the British Monarchy essentially depends.

We are heartily attached to the Church, being persuaded, that though like all other human institutions liable to abuse, it is, and we trust it ever will be the most efficient instrument for diffusing true Religion.—We sincerely desire to move in the spirit of conciliation towards all who conscientiously dissent from the Church Establishment, & would gladly pursue that course as far as the safety of the Establishment will admit; but believing as we do that there is not, at this time of day in any shape, any very grievous burden of intolerance, we will not consent to any proposition of Church Reform, which involves the degradation of her Ministers, and repudiate from our hearts the flimsy substitute of a voluntary principle in lieu of the observance of those sacred ordinances, which from our childhood we have been accustomed to revere.

With regard to the Government of Ireland, we do, indeed, lament the continuance of those unhappy feuds by which the mutual and reciprocal advantages of the Union are so perversely delayed.

Justice, it is said must be done to all, and who is there within her Majesty's Dominions that is prepared to deny it? We say, let Justice be done, but let it be the spirit, and not the semblance of Justice. Justice, not as it comes from the organ of a faction, or as the watch-word of a Party, but as it ought to come from the dispassionate wisdom of an enlightened Legislature, calmly and seriously addressing itself to the consideration of the real circumstances, the real interests, and the real condition of that Country, for which it is called upon to decide.

The limits of an Address necessarily preclude us from adverting to many other topics of public interest, but we cannot conclude without referring more especially to the subject of Agriculture, in which our native County has been so long pre-eminent. When we tender to you our assurance that we will to the utmost of our power uphold it, we are prepared to contend that such a course is not detrimental to the welfare of any other interest.

You will feel that this pointed allusion to it is on our part strictly right, when you turn your thoughts to the many visionary schemes which have been repeatedly and very recently brought forward, in utter forgetfulness of the distresses from which the occupiers of land can hardly be said to have escaped, and into which with increased severity they may too soon relapse.

We have already detained you too long, and we will therefore simply entreat you to continue your kind exertions in our favour. We shall strive to pay our personal respects every where, and

We have the honor to subscribe ourselves, Gentlemen,
Your ever obliged and faithful Servants,

EDMOND WODEHOUSE
H. N. BURROUGHS.

Yarmouth, July 13th, 1837.

TO THE ELECTORS OF EAST NORFOLK.

GENTLEMEN—We have to express our deep obligation to our Friends in East Norfolk for the firm and decided support they have already given us, and earnestly entreat a continuance of their exertions in our favour.

Opposed as the House of Lords has been to the measures of the Ministers and the votes of the House of Commons, we consider that to support Her Majesty's Government is the only way to bring these divisions to an end and to advantage the nation.

The positive declaration of Ministers that they are opposed to organic changes, is a sufficient warrant that the Constitution is safe in their hands.

We will yield to none in solid regard to the Church of England; but in the conviction that the interests of Religion and of the Establishment are best promoted by respecting the rights of others, we shall endeavour to give all just and practicable relief to the great body of Dissenters.

The rights of Englishmen are the rights of Irishmen. Justice is of no country, nor of no faction. We hold the claim of the Irish to be placed on the same footing with the inhabitants of Great Britain to be indisputable, and it is our firm intention to weigh all measures that shall be proposed, and decide our course in this spirit of uprightness.

We will not insult your understanding by any professions of upholding Agriculture. You must be fully aware your interests are ours. To see Agriculture flourish, and the cultivators of the soil independent and prosperous, can but be our most anxious desire.

We know not, Gentlemen, how we can add to this plain explanation of our principles, further than to assure you, that should we be returned, we will to the utmost of our ability give effect to the gradual improvement of our institutions, and the development of the resources of a country blessed with the means of happiness beyond most other kingdoms of the world.

We are, Gentlemen,
Yours devoted and faithful Servants,

W. H. WINDHAM.

Norwich, Thursday, 20th July, 1837.

R. H. GURNEY.

On Saturday, August 5, the Nomination took place at the Shirehall. Mr. Wodehouse and Mr. Burroughes were accompanied into town by an immense cavalcade of their friends and supporters; Mr. Windham dispensed with the usual procession, and Mr. Gurney was prevented by indisposition from being present in Court. The High Sheriff (J. PETRE, Esq.) having opened the business, the Hon. Wm R. Rous proposed, and John Stracey, Esq. seconded, the nomination of EDMOND WODEHOUSE, Esq.; W. E. L. Bulwer, Esq. and Sir Wm. Beauchamp Proctor nominated WM. HOWE WINDHAM, Esq.; Captain the Hon. Edward Wodehouse and Sir Jacob Preston proposed HENRY NEGUS BURROUGHES, Esq.; and RICHARD HANBURY GURNEY, Esq. was nominated by J. P. Boileau, Esq. and H. R. Upcher, Esq. The three Candidates present having addressed the electors, the High Sheriff took a shew of hands, which being in favour of Mr. Wodehouse and Mr. Burroughes, a poll was demanded by Mr. Bulwer and Mr. Boileau for Mr. Windham and Mr. Gurney.

Tuesday following the polling took place at the appointed Districts at which the High Sheriff and his Deputies attended, viz. at North Walsham, the High Sheriff; at Norwich, Mr. Wymer, Under Sheriff; at Reepham, Mr. H. Heffil; at Long Stratton, Mr. Geo. Elward Simpson; at Yarmouth, Mr. Jonathan Townley. At the close of the first day's poll the numbers, as announced by the Conservatives, were—

	Wo.	B.	Wi.	G.
Norwich	1100	1056	948	850
Reepham	317	317	353	327
Long Stratton	673	650	602	619
North Walsham ..	683	645	624	564
Yarmouth	697	689	595	562
	3470	3357	3182	2922

In the course of the evening Mr. Windham and Mr. Gurney resigned the contest; the books, however, were opened during the following day, and the number of votes added was

	Wo.	B.	Wi.	G.
Norwich	55	54	25	21
Reepham	14	7	3	3
Long Stratton	29	28	9	9
North Walsham ..	43	43	7	6
Yarmouth	38	36	5	3
	179	168	49	42

On Friday the official declaration of numbers was made in open Court by the High Sheriff.

For Edmond Wodehouse, Esq.....	3645
Henry Negus Burroughes, Esq.	3523
Wm. Howe Windham, Esq.	3237
Richard Hanbury Gurney, Esq.	2978

Mr. Wodehouse and Mr. Burroughes having been declared the Representatives to serve in Parliament for the Eastern Division of Norfolk, they returned their thanks and received the congratulations of their friends. The Chaiof the Members presented a most brilliant spectacle, and the Ball at the Assembly Rooms was attended by upwards of 400 Ladies and Gentlemen of the County and City.

It may be mentioned as a remarkable coincidence, that Mr. Burroughes, the newly-elected M. P. for East Norfolk, served the office of High Sheriff in 1817, and was consequently returning officer when his present colleague, Mr. Edmond Wodehouse, first contested the County, and was so triumphantly returned in opposition to the Whig Candidate Mr. Pratt.

Subsequent to the Election the following Addresses appeared :—

TO THE ELECTORS OF EAST NORFOLK.

GENTLEMEN—We beg to render you our most grateful thanks for all those numberless acts of kindness, through which the struggle has been brought so gloriously to an end.

The battle is over, and we have won the victory. Our earnest desire is, that this great triumph of; olitical principle may be entirely divested of all private animosity; and with an ardent hope that we may not be hereafter found unworthy of that confidence which you have so generously reposed in us.

We remain, Gentlemen,
Your very obliged and faithful Servants,

EDMOND WODEHOUSE
H. N. BURROUGHES.

TO THE ELECTORS OF EAST NORFOLK.

GENTLEMEN—The majority against us on the first day's poll being 170, which precluded any fair expectation of our ultimate success, we thought it right in justice both to our friends and our opponents at once to withdraw from the contest. We are happy to say it has been carried on without personal animosity, and we complain of nothing but the dangerous and disgraceful use made of the New Poor Law to our disadvantage, by those partisans who in private support it not only in opinion but in practice. To those friends from whom we have received so warm and zealous a support, we cannot adequately express our thanks; but let them be assured, we at all times shall feel grateful for their exertions, and shall be most happy to unite with them in any struggle to promote the good government and happiness of the people.

We are, Gentlemen,
Your faithful and obliged Servants,

Norwich, Aug. 10th, 1837.

WINDHAM & GURNEY.

THE EAST NORFOLK POLL & REGISTER.

The Electors are arranged according to Residence, and the place where the qualification is situated for which the party votes, immediately follows the name. The "Norwich," and "Distant Voters," will be found under their respective heads, at the end of the book.

* * Those Registered Electors against whom no Polling (—) is placed, did not vote, or were registered in two places.

* John Houchen, Esq. of Wereham-hall, in this county, polled about three o'clock on the first day (Tuesday), at the Purple and Pink booth, for Wodehouse and Burroughes; and his vote so given was duly returned, in one of the check cards, to their Committee. About half an hour afterwards, it was discovered that a vote had been recorded in Mr. Houchen's name, and on the same property, at the Orange and White booth, by some person, at present unknown, for Messrs. Windham and Gurney. Upon being informed of the circumstance, Mr. Houchen immediately made inquiries at the Whig polling booth, where he learnt that one of the clerks had at the time expressed strong doubts as to the individual (described as a man of respectable appearance) being the Mr. Houchen whose name stood in the East Norfolk Register. The false vote was however recorded—and on the real elector attending on the following morning before the High Sheriff to complain of this act of fraud, and to solicit its correction, he learnt to his great regret, that no alteration could be made in the books. And thus it appears that, though the offence is punishable on conviction by a fine of 500*l.* yet had there been a dozen or more of such impudently personated suffrages, they must still have been left to swell the numbers on the poll for those on whose behalf they might happen to be given. We hope the personator will be detected, and suffer the public exposure, if not the legal penalty, he so richly deserves."—Norfolk Chronicle, August 12, 1837.

At this Election, the total number of voters polled amounted to 7251, being 1719 more than voted in the sharp contest of 1768 (but of the 7251, 478 were afterwards scrutinized and disallowed.) At this election the perhaps unparalleled circumstance occurred of two persons voting in succession for one freehold, which took place by the death of the first voter, who was father of the second.
